

Surry County Beekeepers Association
Monthly Meeting
Monday, October 12, 2015

In the absence of President Albert Cockerham, Bob King, Vice-President, presided over the October meeting. Eighteen individuals were present.

Old Business: No minutes from the September meeting were read due to the absence of the club's secretary, Amy Moyle.

Treasurers Report: No treasurer's report was given due to the absence of the club's treasurer, Lisa Royal.

New Business: Paul Madren, Director/Advisor, discussed the Bee School which will be offered through Surry Community College in January, fee not yet determined. It will be held on 6 consecutive Monday evenings 6-8 pm.

Paul mentioned the need for a volunteer to move and clean the abandoned bee hive in the yard of the NC State Extension office in Dobson.

The club needs volunteers to fill the positions of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer at the November meeting.

Volunteers also needed to represent the Surry County Beekeepers Association at the Horne Creek Farm Corn Shucking on Sat, Oct 17.

North Carolina State Fair is coming up and Paul plans on attending.

The spring meeting of the NC Beekeepers Association will be at New Bern, NC on February 25, 26, & 27, 2016.

The club's Christmas party will be at Libby Hill Restaurant on Saturday, December 5, 2015.

Presentation: Eugene Brown gave a presentation on "Essential Oil Therapy" and "Essential Oils in Beekeeping."

The meeting adjourned and to meet again on Monday, November 9, 2015.
